Sensei Labs named in Best Companies for Remote Workers by Quartz 2022

Sensei Labs has been named one of the Best Companies for Remote Workers by Quartz

Sensei Labs December 16, 2022

It's surely a happy Wednesday here at Sensei Labs! Our company got named as one of the Best Companies for Remote Workers by Quartz.

At Sensei Labs, we LOVE our people, and it's great to celebrate that we are embracing the diversity and flexibility that many people are now craving when it comes to remote working. Talented colleagues, effective leadership, great managers, clear communication, and overall engagement, of course, give us brownie points, too.

As a company, we don't hire talent only from Toronto just because that's where our head office is; rather, we hunt for talent from around the world. We're happy to break the stereotype that work just gets done by people showing up to a physical office. Go, team Sensei!

BTW we're looking for awesome new people. Check out the open positions here and apply.
